

FCC: Please do not interfere with XM Radio's superb local weather and traffic reports. Because I have no physical boundaries blocking local reports, I can be updated on traffic even when I am outside the local radio range, approaching home from afar on the road. Their signals travel through the air too. Don't cut them off.

Respectfully,
Bill Wolff